Dear Jerry;

I will just write a short note, there was something I forgot to ask you yesterday. The judge has ruled that you are a friend can have a seat in the court at the trial, why don't you write to his court clerk and ask him the details about it, whether you have to use the seat as a friend, I've written to, clerk of the court, Judge W. Preston Bell Criminal Court Bldg. Memphis Tenn.

Yours truly

Jerry
Let me know if a friend can use the seat when you next, also how many seats you will get.

P.S.

The paper said that the judge gave 3 or 4 seats to people who are writing books, but it didn't give their names.
When you write to the court clerk ask him who the authors names are. I suppose someone people that were recommended by the Justice Dept.
If you can't get this information let me know and I will ask Home about it.
